

RAWMENTRAIL

Austria mountains 5-9 may 2020

Do you want to unplug yourself from the hustle and bustle of everyday life? Do you want time for yourself and that in the midst of the mighty power of mountains around you? Do you want to inspire yourself within the elements of nature?

A RawMenTrail is a journey with a small group of other men and with yourself in a way that you shape yourself with the elements to bring out the man in yourself.

Beautiful rugged walks and overnight stays in places high in the mountains. In a mountainhut as well as the possibility to spend a night in nature, only if you wish.
